

Camp Pathway Workshop

Girl Scouts of Black Diamond Council will be offering training on a variety of outdoor education topics. Join us on Saturday and Sunday, February 4 - 5, 2012 at Rippling Waters Conference Center in Kenna, WV. Camp Rippling Waters is located just off I-77 between Ripley and Parkersburg, WV on the Jackson County/Kanawha County border. These workshops are available to day camp directors, outdoor program/event coordinators, and anyone who enjoys the outdoor experience.

Training hours are from 1-7 pm on Saturday and 9-11:30 am on Sunday. Meals, snacks and lodging are provided at no charge. Lodging is provided in a modernized, heated lodge. Beds are bunk-style and each unit will accommodate up to eight people. Bring your sleeping bag or sheets and blanket, pillow, toiletries, and a change of clothes.

Training topics include:

- Outdoor Education Programs
- Camp Staffing; Recruitment, Management and Training
- Outdoor Education for Volunteers
- Camp Operating Procedures & Safety Procedures
- Marketing a Girl Scout Camp
- Campfire Programs
- Exhibit Hall
- Scouts Own Faith and Diversity Ceremony
- Designing an Outdoor Education Experience from A to Z

If you would like part of your group to attend the Project Wild Training taking place in Mineral Wells on February 4, they are welcome to come back and stay with us at camp that night. For more information on the Project Wild Training, visit <http://www.bdgsc.org/events/Community-Opportunities> or <http://www.projectwild.org/>.

Register by contacting Sandie Burdette, Events and Training Registrar at sandie.burdette@bdgsc.org or 304-345-7722, ext. 1038. Registration will be open until Wednesday, February 1, 2012.

Capacity: Min 10/Max 50

