This form serves as a RESERVATION REQUEST. Your reservation is NOT confirmed until you receive a confirmation email. If the space is unavailable for your requested time, we will contact you to work out other arrangements.

All reservations are on a first come, first served basis.

List any adults that will be staying all night during your overnight stay (include address and phone number). If you need more space use a separate sheet of paper and send it in with this reservation request. All adults who are staying overnight must have a background check and be a registered member of Girl Scouts of Black Diamond Council.

You should receive a confirmation email or packet that will have your balance due, items you should bring for your visit to the girl zone, check-in /check-out procedures and a troop camping report to be filled out before you leave. Please feel free to offer any suggestions.

Approved by: _____

Based on availability Girl Scout troops may meet at the Girl Zone for weekly, bi-weekly or monthly meetings at no charge. There is meeting space for two troops at a time and must be scheduled in advance.

Girl Zone Amenities

The Girl Zone is a state of the art “urban camp” that will allow our girls and volunteers the opportunity to visit the capital city of West Virginia (Charleston) and enjoy the cultural surroundings such as the Clay Center, Cultural Center, Civic Center, Capital, Town Center Mall, Indian Mound in South Charleston, Appalachian Power Park (Baseball) and numerous local state parks all while enjoying a safe, fun and inexpensive place to stay.

The Girl Zone boasts two dorm rooms. The rooms sleep 12 girls each (bunk beds) and has a separate sleeping room for 2 female leaders. They also have a restroom with 5 toilets and 5 showers per room and a large changing area with plenty of outlets for hair dryers, curling irons and other small appliances.

To help the troop/group save money there are two kitchens available for use (1 per dorm room) with a stove, refrigerator and dishwasher so that after a day of traveling around the city’s attractions you can come back and make lunch and dinner. There are tables available for dining.

There is a great room with 2 areas for relaxing and discussing that day’s adventure with your fellow Girl Scout sisters as well as meeting and sharing your stories with new “sisters”.

After your day of traveling the city and surrounding areas of Charleston there is a beautiful fire pit in the back yard of the Girl Zone that has amphitheater style seating. You will have hours and hours of fun singing campfire songs, roasting marshmallows or telling ghost stories. This is another great area to meet new Girl Scouts and make lifelong friends.

For those wanting to have meetings or crafts during their stay you can use the meeting space at the front of the Girl Zone. There are tables and chairs there for your use.
